M. CRIGHTON, 113 E. Broad Street.

LEGISLATURE TO MEET WEDNESDAY

Judges will have no opposition. The same is true of a number of the circuit judges whose terms expire.

But there are two spirited contests in the latter class. These are in the Thirtieth and Twentieth Circuits. The incumbent in the former is Judge B. Taylor Garnett, of Mathews, and he is opposed by Hon. Claggett B. Jones, of King and Queen.

In the Twentieth Circuit, Judge C. B. Mooney, of Roanoke, is the incumbent by appointment of Governor Montague, having been named to succeed Hon. Henry E. Blair, resigned. The other candidates are former Judge W. W. Moffitt, of Salem, and former Judge J. R. Tucker, of Roanoke. Both these contests are lively, and the friends of all the aspirants are working hard.

The two Houses of the General Assembly will organize, and hear Governor Montague's message at noon on Wednesday, and will then meet formally from day to day, until the committee shall have been named and are ready for business.

Some Bills Mentioned.

Meanwhile, bills on almost every conceivable subject are expected to pour in and be referred to their proper committees for subsequent report.

Here are some that are most talked of now:

To create a board of tax equalization.

To amend the school laws in conformity with recommendations of the Board of Education.

To provide a better system of immigration.

To increase the compensation of attorneys for the Commonwealth.

To create the office of traveling auditor.

To increase the appropriations to the various educational and eleemosynary institutions of the State.

To permanently improve the public highway system.

To make more efficient the public school system.

To legalize party primaries.

To modify the present social club laws.

To beautify the Capitol grounds.

To provide for the appointment of commissioners of revenue of the courts.

To create a bureau of insurance, and to regulate that business in Virginia.

To modify the land-grab act.

To break the Baylor oyster survey.

To inaugurate the Torrens land registration system.

To redivide the State into congressional districts.

To increase the appropriation for Confederate pensions.

Nearly All Democrats.

No caucus action will be required on the question of United States senators this year. Senator Martin Bayliss has been nominated as his own successor in the recent State primary. The Republicans will likely caucus and put up a candidate, probably Judge Lewis or Congressman Slemm, but they will have but few votes to give their nominee.

Following is the political complexion of the new General Assembly on joint ballot: Democrats, 122; Republicans, 18.

New Fruits
JUST RECEIVED.
ORANGES,
TANGERINES,
GRAPE FRUIT

This is positively one of the finest lots of fruit that we have ever handled. The fruit is large in size, juicy and sweet. They have full measure of excellent flavor peculiar to Florida fruits, and are delightful in rich, luscious pulp.

Grape Fruit prices, per dozen, 75c to $2.00.

We have also received a shipment of new lots of extra fine quality.

RARE OLD WINES, BRANDIES AND LIQUORS.

Herman Schmidt,

FIFTH AND BROAD STREET.

For half century Richmond's leading Grocer and Wine Merchant.

There will be one vacancy at the start, but this will be filled by a Democrat from Halifax, to succeed the late R. B. Noblin, in the Senate. The special election will be held on January 30th, and Major H. A. Edmondson, a former House member, will likely be chosen. The Republicans have twelve members in the House and six in the Senate, and the Democrats all the rest.

Governor Montague has prepared his message to the law-makers, and while he is not discussing its contents, it is understood to be concise and full of trite suggestions. It is understood to be of medium length.

There will be many familiar faces in both chambers when the legislators come together.

On the Senate side there will be Wickham, Walker, Shackelford, Patterson, Phlegar, Mann, Kewell, Hobbs, Shands, Sale and others. Churchman and Walker are old "wheel horses" from Augusta in the House, while Dr. R. S. Powell, familiarly known as "Uncle Sam," will be on hand to represent Brunswick.

As to the Humorists.

Others who have served long and well in the lower House and who have been returned are Canon, of Alexandria; Scott, of Amherst; Lowry, of Bedford; Ould, of Campbell; Baker, of Chesterfield; Clarke, of Fougler; Carroll, of Halifax; Green, of Fougler; Caldwell, of Haney; Jennings, of Lynchburg; Coleman, of Greene; Head, of Mecklenburg; Coleman and Bowman, of Roanoke, and many others.

Major Green and Dr. Powell are two of the most picturesque figures on the House side, and there are none who have more warm friends among their colleagues, or in the newspaper fraternity. Maj. Green finds his greatest enjoyment in smoking his pipe during long debates, and admiring Houdon's splendid statue of Washington.

Dr. Powell is the decided humorist of the House, since Maj. Edmondson did not return to the body. It was up and tuck which should bear the palm in this line, when they served together. Now that Maj. Edmondson is coming to the Senate things are going to be kept very lively in either wing of the beautiful building.

The hotel lobbies are already beginning to fill with numbers of political leaders, and by to-morrow night, perhaps all of those who will attend the preliminary meetings will be on hand.

COL. ROBT. E. LEE, JR., IS IN FINE SPIRITS

Believes His Prospects for Landing Speakership Are Good.

Colonel Robert E. Lee, Jr., of Fairfax, a prominent candidate for the speakership of the House of Delegates, is in the city, having arrived yesterday to push his fight for the honor and to attend the sessions of the Legislature.
